Latin Composition for Secondary Schools

By BENJAMIN L. D'OOGE

Professor of Latin in the Michigan State Normal College, Ypsilanti

"IT HELPS A STUDENT TO ENTER INTO THE SPIRIT OF THE LATIN LANGUAGE"

IN TWO VOLUMES

Part I based on Caesar . . . . . List Price, 50 cents
Parts II and III based on Cicero . . . . . List Price, 60 cents
Complete Edition (bound in one volume) . . . List Price, $1.00

A unique work, combining the systematic presentation of syntax with exercises based on the text.

Part I comprises the first volume and is to be used in connection with the first four Books of Caesar.

Parts II and III form the second volume.

Part II, intended to accompany the work of the third year, is based on Cicero's Manilian Law, Catiline I–IV, and the Archias.

Part III consists of thirty-four lessons of miscellaneous sentences and continuous prose based on Cicero, and is accompanied by a special vocabulary.

The exercises in Parts I and II, while based on the text for vocabulary, idioms, and sentence structure, give an orderly and systematic treatment of the principles of Latin syntax and do not follow the caprice of the text.

Latin Composition . . . . . List Price, 50 cents
(To accompany Greenough, D'Ooge, and Daniell's Second Year Latin)

This is offered for schools using the Second Year Latin, the selections from Caesar in that book being the text on which this course in Latin composition is based.

From Esther A. Clark, Department of Latin, Nebraska State Normal School, Peru: "D'Ooge's Latin Composition for Secondary Schools is based upon a true conception of the place of composition in the Latin course, and in a great measure succeeds in effecting the ideal union between a systematic study of syntax and the daily exercise in reading. The more closely these two plans of Latin study can be combined, the more composition will become what it should be, an aid to translation, and the book which makes this combination in the most practical way must find a welcome among teachers of Latin."

From Marion L. Jennings, Instructor of Latin, Union High School, Grand Rapids, Michigan; "I am using D'Ooge's Latin Composition in my classes, and my admiration of it increases with each week's use."
